

PAY IT FORWARD Charleston

Serving those who serve us.

Founded in Spring 2020, Pay It Forward Charleston is a 501(c)(3) committed to supporting the foodservice industry in times of crisis through grants. EIN #: 85-1238004

2020 IMPACT REPORT

- 11,575 grocery bags were provided to over 2,250 individuals
- Donation amounts ranged from $5-$10,000 totaling over $116,000
- Food from 17 Charleston-area farms, food producers, and local-independent businesses filled Pay It Forward's grocery bags
- Employees from more than 250 restaurants received grocery assistance at no cost over eight weeks
- Over 35% of survey respondents have made a donation to Pay It Forward since receiving provision assistance

2021 GRANT DISTRIBUTION GOALS: $100,000 TO THE F&B COMMUNITY

GROCERY ASSISTANCE GRANTS

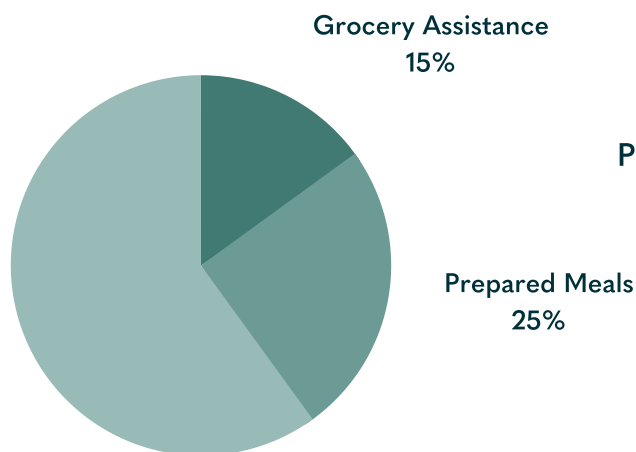

Support farmers, food producers, suppliers by purchasing consumable provisions to distribute to those in need in an emergency (e.g. hurricane or major event).

PREPARED MEAL GRANTS

Support restaurant and food-producing businesses through a systems approach, requiring funds be used to pay employee labor, be spent with local-independent businesses, and food product be intended for consumption by the food and beverage community or others in need.

INDIVIDUAL GRANTS

Support food and beverage community members facing unforeseen challenges such as medical emergencies or accidents.

SPONSORSHIP MENU

Charitable Giving

Make a tax-deductible donation to honor a person or dining destination that holds a special place in your heart. Let's get to work making sure the people and places who serve us daily have the support they need when the unexpected occurs.

Restaurant, CPG, and Hospitality-Focused Giving

Create a collaborative event or product highlighting Pay It Forward, returning a percent of sales or event proceeds to support our Emergency Relief Fund. Show up for foodservice workers, and others who serve and supply restaurants, when they need a hand-up.

Business Giving

Align your business's charitable giving with your love for food and community. Let's create a giving plan that works for you AND that makes a difference in the lives of those in food and beverage facing unforeseen financial challenges.

Whether you are a small business owner or working in the corporate sector, Pay It Forward Charleston has opportunities for your company to receive exposure through customized sponsorships. For information on upcoming events, ongoing programming, or unique collaborations, please contact Executive Director Carrie Larson at carrie@payitforwardcharleston.org.
